Faces of local youth work: Sorina Carmen Văcariu – Program Manager, Asociația Sprijin și Dezvoltare, Romania

09/11/2026 - Faces of EGL

Sorina Văcariu is a psychologist, youth worker, and co-founder and president of Asociația Sprijin și Dezvoltare. She has more than 15 years of experience in social inclusion and grant-funded projects, working with children, young people and families in rural and urban communities. She was the partner project manager for “The Key to the Future – Social Inclusion in Budila Commune”, coordinating the association’s contribution alongside Budila Municipality and the school. Her work combines support for families, Roma inclusion, and youth participation, helping young people make their voices heard in community life and local decisions.
