

Study visit in Liechtenstein

Liechtenstein, February 12 - February 13, 2019

One of the key aims of the Europe Goes Local project is to support peer-learning amongst local organisations, municipalities, local institutions. The study visit is one of the most popular format of activities in the network. Altogether more than forty study visits are planned in the project till the end of 2020.

A study visit just took place in Liechtenstein on 12-13 February when six Swiss youth workers discussed with their host colleagues about structures, practices and the legal background youth work.
