Activating Citizens: Municipalities Making Use of the European Solidarity Corps will go on from 21-22 June 2022. It will be two half-day sessions from 9:30 to 15:00. The deadline to apply is 22 May 2022.

The seminar will:

- present funding opportunities of the new European Solidarity Corps Programme 2021-2027;
- share inspiring examples from Europe and the partner regions on how municipalities and young people can benefit from the European Solidarity Corps;
- show how to foster social innovation by volunteering within the European Solidarity Corps.

During this training course you will:

- improve knowledge of European programs;
- explore funding opportunities;

- share best practices;
- receive guidance from National Agencies;
- connect with others.

There will be 30 participants from Europe and the partner regions (Western Balkans, Eastern Partnership Countries, and South-Mediterranean countries). The Bulgarian National Agency for Erasmus+ and ESC, European Solidarity Corps Resource Centre, and Europe Goes Local are hosting this training course.
