

Call for participants: 4th EGL event

14/04/2022 - News from Europe Goes Local

The 4th European Event of Europe Goes Local is fast approaching! EGL is launching its platform for stronger cooperation on May 17th – 19th in Cluj-Napoca, Romania.

But that's not all. You will also:

- get the opportunity to create activity plans to support your local youth work;
- discuss what youth work offers and the role of municipalities;
- learn about the European Charter on Local Youth Work and other European instruments;
- meet local organisations and other stakeholders in local youth work from the whole of Europe;
- as a special bonus, you'll get a preview of our new future website, intranet and general rebranding;
- and much more!

We invite all local youth stakeholders who are committed to raising the quality of youth work and making a difference in their countries to apply and attend our event.

The application deadline is April 28th, 2022. More info and apply here.
