

Call for participants Democracy Reloading

14/03/2022 - News from Partners

So believing in youth
and the potential of youth is something

We went to talk with Democracy Reloading during their last training course, and we discovered what they do. Learn all about it in this video!

Are you sad that you missed their last training? Luckily, can still join them on their next training course in July!

It's open to municipality officers and their local partners who want to improve their youth policies, structures, and programs engaging young people in municipal decision-making!

You can find more info here.
