Project Lab: Europe Goes Local
Supporting rural youth work
14-17 Nov | Chalkidiki, Greece

Strengthen the usage offered by the ERASMUS+ and the European Solidarity Corps programs for youth work at the municipal level

For municipalities and local organizations from rural areas

Application deadline: 20 September - <http://trainings.salto-youth.net/10484>

The second Project Lab of Europe Goes Local focuses on rural youth work. This training will take place in Chalkidiki (Greece) from the 14th to the 17th of November 2022. The participants will also join a preparatory webinar and an online meet and greet session in October. If you're interested in a general Project Lab about local youth work, you can apply for the Project Lab in Bonn.

Project Labs

The Europe Goes Local Project Labs are international training and networking events. They bring officials and practitioners in youth work together to strengthen the usage and exploitation of the possibilities offered by the Erasmus+ and the European Solidarity Corps programmes for youth work at municipal level.

Specifically, the Project Labs aim to:

- provide information and training on the possibilities of the European mobility programmes, and how to use them;
- present and curate good practices in using the programmes, with a focus on youth work at municipal level;
- support partnership-building and networking, with a focus on youth work at municipal level;

- allow for project development with a focus on the usage of the European mobility programmes, and provide coaching thereof;
- provide direct contact and support by the network of National Agencies to the potential project promoters / beneficiaries.

Find more information about this project lab on rural youth work here, and apply until the 20th of September here.

You can also still apply for the Project Lab in Bonn until the 5th of September. This project lab doesn't have a specific theme.
