Good practice aim & purpose

The Teslić Youth Center is an accessible and adapted space for young people in which activities and programs based on the methods and principles of nonformal education are provided to young people with the aim of developing young people into conscious, responsible members of the community and creating conditions for realizing their full potential.

In April 2022, the municipal administration of Teslić started providing adequate and adapted space for young people in the municipality of Teslić, and at the 15th regular session of the Teslić Municipal Assembly, the Decision on providing adequate and adapted space for young people in the municipality of Teslić was adopted.

The Municipality of Teslić provides the conditions for the maintenance, equipping and modernization of the Teslić Youth Center, and the competent Department for Social Activities is responsible for establishing basic standards in the work of the Teslić Youth Center as well as the conditions in which young people can express and demonstrate their creative abilities as well as perform youth activities based on established criteria
