Good practice aspect(s)/themes of youth work

- Non-formal education/-learning

Good practice category

A practice of processes and methods

Good practice aim & purpose

On the occasion of the Belgian Presidency 2024 of the European Union, the Forum des Jeunes, the Bureau International Jeunesse and the Youth Service of the Wallonia-Brussels Federation wish to :

- offer young people a physical space for expression, exchange and participation
- raise the profile of youth activities in the Wallonia-Brussels Federation by proposing programming in collaboration with the youth sector

Good practice description

3 weeks of workshops, debates, conferences, shows, concerts, exhibitions, openmics, international encounters... for young people! The Agora Jeunes Citoyen-ne-s (AJC) takes place from February 20 to March 9 at TRACK.brussels in Brussels North Station (and also at other locations in Wallonia). This 100% free event is dedicated to the participation and expression of young people in collaboration with youth structures.

Good practice result & concrete effects

The project is not yet in the evaluation phase, but the aim is also to create links between the various structures working with young people.
