

Empower & Inspire - Good Practices in local youth work

18/06/2025 - News from Europe Goes Local

Discover the new EGL
Good Practices publication:

Empower & Inspire

Including 35 examples of projects, practices, processes and tools from across Europe to help spark your next youth work idea.

We are excited to share our Empower & Inspire: Good Practices in local youth work publication!

These practices originate from various local organisations and projects in Europe and are part of the EGL database. We followed up on them through stories and interviews, and now they are summarized in this publication to empower and inspire all of you – youth workers, young people, and those who are passionate about the quality development of youth work and its impact on local communities.

Enjoy the read, and spread the word!

Download the publication here.

Want to be included in the next edition of the EGL good practices publication? Submit your good practice here.