

Study visit of local youth work in Slovenia: Youth participation as foundation of youth work

For civil (municipal) servants on the field of youth work and youth workers from Erasmus+ Youth programme countries and Western Balcan countries.

The aim of the study visit to Slovenia is to show the local practices of youth work, which are based on the principles of the European charter on local youth work and a national context.

More info
and application,
open till 25 April 2023.

SIGN UP

Highlights of the visit:

LJUBLJANA NATIONAL CONTEXT

National youth work context will be presented by the Office of the Republic of Slovenia for Youth, National Youth Council and Network Mama, with a special focus to participatory process of designing a National program for Youth and National implementation plan of EYWA.

LJUBLJANA

How youth work in Ljubljana is structured, supported and designed we will show through meeting the city's Office for Youth and field visit of two different youth centers (from which one is a mobile youth center) and see, how they address participation.

ZAGORJE OB SAVI

Zagorje ob Savi is a post-industrial, semi urban and semi-rural municipality (population 16.000) and by visiting a local youth center, the hosts will present, how they address the quality of youth work, innovation, participation and how they managed, trough years, to bring international youth work in the community.

CELJE

Celje is the fourth biggest city in the country and has developed a strongly structured and supported youth work. Their process of designing strategies on the field of youth is a show case. We will get closer to their reality by visiting a vibrant youth center and hostel in the city center.

BREŽICE

Brežice is a border municipality with 24,000 inhabitants and has an urban and rural character. They will show how youth work is systematized, how they designed a strategy in the field of youth in a participatory way, and how they monitor quality. Youth work takes place here in many NGOs and in a youth center with a hostel, which we will visit.

Welcome to join, learn and share!

Accommodation in Ljubljana, daily travels with a rented bus. Program can be a subject of change.